

2016 MEMBER FEEDBACK

WHAT DOES MHEDA'S NETWORKING AND EDUCATION MEAN TO YOU?

Networking

MHEDA lets me talk to people who do work similar to what I do. We discuss concerns we share, and how to address them better. - David Hermann, Wisconsin Lift Truck Corp.

Associates our company with a very reputable group and allows us to network with high quality suppliers and distributors. - Ken Cooper, Professional Industrial Tire Co., Inc.

MHEDA makes it easy for me to network within our industry thru online and conference meetings. It helps me stay updated on current market trends and is always offering support. - Douglas D Johnson, Morrison Industrial Equip. Co.

Pride in belonging to a group of "elite" dealers. networking opportunities and I always come back with a few new ideas to implement in my dealership. - Tim Jamal, Jamco Inc.

A membership which allows me to interact with other professionals in many industries, but with similar issues to learn more. - Tracy Frederick, Southern Acquisitions

MHEDA is a fantastic organization that promotes and facilitates networking with other people in the material handling industry. It allows members to find unique solutions to issues and stay updated on modern trends. - Mike Martinec, Alliance Material Handling

For an industry the size of the material handling industry, being connected and learning about what other dealerships are doing (and the challenges they face) is valuable. The networking is also a powerful career tool as many member companies are privately owned and ownership changing hands is inevitable. - Kevin Kazimir, CMH Services

Knowledge/Education

It means a wealth of knowledge all in one place, from training to looking at the future of the industry and everything in between. - Calvin Baker, Elite Supply Chain Solutions

Networking, information and training that is industry specific. - Sue Shively, Norlift Inc.

A place where you can gain and share knowledge to people in your industry. - Matthew Hosein, Frontier Forklifts

It's an excellent way to connect with others in our industry OUTSIDE of our normal, OEM-affiliated channels. More perspectives = better knowledge base. I think MHEDA is one of the best run associations I've been involved with. Scott Timmer, Morrison Industrial

It is a very good media to discuss like issues that you may have and see what others are doing to deal with the issue. - Rick Smith, Fraza Forklifts

Networking and industry specific education. - Greg Brown, WW Cannon, Inc.

An affiliation with a great industry resource that provides education and networking opportunities for those new and tenured within our industry. - Cheryl Flood, Associated
